SOCK CAMP 2009 ♦ RESORT at PORT LUDLOW

Where sock knitting is serious business.

The SSS (sock secret service) is gathering and you are invited to join us and our crabby little friend for crazy sock knitting fun. Space is limited to 60 campers, so return your registration promptly to assure your place at Camp. Truly a raucous good time!

We are thrilled to welcome back Cat Bordhi, Stephanie Pearl-McPhee, JC Briar.

Cat Bordhi

Surprise! Cat has a new wonderful sock knitting adventure to take us on. One that she believes will knock our socks off, so I can only assume that we are in for quite a ride.

Stephanie Pearl-McPhee

Want to learn to knit socks faster? How about smarter or more efficiently? Stephanie examines the various techniques, attitudes and history of the most productive sock knitters. This class is designed not necessarily to change how you knit (unless you want to) but to help you become the most efficient knitter you can be on your own terms. We'll explore all the major knitting styles – as well as some you may not have met before. Knitters at all levels are welcome. No homework required.

JC Briar

Last year she taught us to cast on in O so many cool and creative ways. This year JC is harnessing that same brilliance and directing it towards binding off.

Yours Truly

Come dye with me. We are going to play with color and fiber and see what magic we can get them to do together.
